

If you are an Employer or a Community Employment Service Provider, this is Your Invitation to help prepare young eager, emerging graduates make vital career decisions as they exit our Catholic Secondary schools.

Here's how you can help:

- Attend the Employment Awareness Event on November 4.
- Be prepared to share your knowledge about your career and careers in your workplace with interested young people.
- You'll be given a space to network and display your business. You're welcome to bring printed material, display boards, and/or electronic equipment, or simply bring yourself. If you have full time, part time, summer, or casual work available these young people are prepared for interviews.
- If you do not have immediate employment available you are highly encouraged to speak with young people individually about careers in your business, and network with Hamilton's future workforce.
- While at the event, you can hear guest speakers, and attend a free workshop on how to access government incentives for hiring youth.
- Lunch and refreshments are provided for all event attendees.
